

€10,000 FBD PIG INDUSTRY INNOVATION BURSARY

PURPOSE

The bursary is designed to support individual's to deliver measurable and practical benefits to the Irish pig industry through innovation, research, knowledge transfer and industry advancement.

ELIGIBILITY

Applications are welcome from:

- » Pig farmers
- » Farm managers
- » Researchers
- » Academics
- » Industry advisors
- » Veterinarians
- » Nutrition specialists
- » Genetics specialists
- » Animal health professionals
- » Other industry stakeholders

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. Name

2. Email

3. Applicant Biography

(Maximum 300 words)

4. Project Title

5. Describe your proposed project and how it would enhance the competitiveness of the Irish Pig Industry.

(Maximum 500 words)

Where relevant, please indicate how your project relates to current Irish regulatory or industry priorities, such as the Nitrates Action Programme, national antimicrobial guidelines, or Bord Bia sustainability targets.

6. What challenge or opportunities within the Irish pig industry does your project address?

(Maximum 500 words)

7. What measurable outcomes will be delivered?

(Maximum 500 words)

8. How will the wider industry benefit from the project?

(Maximum 500 words)

9. How will the €10,000 bursary be spent?

Please provide a budget breakdown.

10. Provide a project timeline including key milestones and completion dates.

JUDGING CRITERIA

- » Industry relevance with an emphasis on Irish competitiveness and sustainability – 50%
- » Innovation and practical application – 25%
- » Feasibility and value for money – 25%

REPORTING REQUIREMENT

The successful bursary recipient will be required to provide a report outlining project outcomes within nine months of receiving the award.